

Call for Book Chapters

Book title: Organizational learning in tourism and hospitality crisis management

Editors:

Dr. Zahed Ghaderi, School of Management, Kharazmi University, Tehran, Iran.

Prof. Alexandros Paraskevas, University of West London. London, UK.

Publisher's series De Gruyter Studies in Tourism.

The book will have the following chapters:

- Tourism and hospitality crisis management approaches
- Organizational learning and crisis management models and frameworks
- Critical need for organizational learning in crisis management
- Crisis planning and preparedness in hospitality and tourism industries
- Organizational learning and learning organizations (in crisis management)
- Organizational learning cycle in crisis management
- Measuring organizational learning in tourism crisis management
- Crisis prepared organization cases in tourism and hospitality
- Barriers to learning in tourism crisis management.
- Organizational culture and hospitality crisis management
- Organizational resiliency, changes and adoption in tourism crisis management
- Case studies on organizational learning and tourism crisis management
- Organizational knowledge management in hospitality crisis management
- Collaborative technologies and organizational learning in tourism crisis management
- Practices and tools of organizational learning in tourism crisis management

Key dates:

April 15, 2020: Submission of expression of interest with 300-word extended abstracts

May 15, 2020: Notification/invitation to submit full chapters

July 1st, 2020: Submission of invited full chapters with 5,000-6,000 words

November 1st, 2020: Submission of book to De Gruyter for publication

Please submit your abstract to the editors: zahedghaderi@yahoo.com. (Dr. Zahed Ghaderi). Alexandros.Paraskevas@uwl.ac.uk (Prof. Alexandros Paraskevas)